The Aegina Photography Club's annual exhibition focused this year on "people and our animal friends". They invited the three animal welfare groups on Aegina to give a short presentation, set up tables to sell things and give out information. - APAA, Vrouva Farm, and ACC (the new group Aegina Cat Care).

It was a good opportunity to show that these groups are working together to improve the condition of animals on our island. The revenue from the sale of the photographs will be evenly split between the three groups

Danae handled APAA's representation and arranged for people to look after our table: Elena spoke about APAA and our dog shelter.
