

Love can work wonders

At the end of October 2024, a dog in a very poor condition was reported to the Animal Protection team. We named the male dog Faith:

His eyes showed a strong will to survive. A very nice foster family took him in and now, in December 2024, a small miracle has happened:

Your team from Animal Protection