

Faith – Faith, love, hope

Sometimes we meet souls whose story touches us deep inside - like Faith. He came to us as a shadow of himself, marked by pain and loneliness, and yet full of quiet hope for a spark of love. How much suffering and disappointment might this brave dog have experienced before he was finally allowed to find a sense of security?

You will surely remember the story of Faith, which we have written down for you:

Very ill, Faith came to a foster family who took him to their hearts from day one. Thanks to their love, he really blossomed once again and his skin symptoms disappeared completely.

We could only guess that it was an old, unwanted male dog that had been abandoned. His past will remain a mystery to us:

Sadly, Faith passed away a few days ago after several seizures and strokes in just one night.

Faith - at least your last months were probably the most beautiful in your life!

Rest gently and in peace.
